

NEWS RELEASE

ProTranslating's María Cristina de la Vega is elected to NAJIT board of directors.

Miami, Florida May 19, 2011- ProTranslating, Inc., today announced that María Cristina de la Vega, president, was elected to the board of directors of the National Association of Judiciary Interpreters and Translators (NAJIT). Voting results were made known at their annual conference in Long Beach, CA this past weekend.

NAJIT, founded in 1978, is the premier association for interpreters and translators working in the judicial and law-enforcement systems and advocates for the rights of limited English-proficient individuals in the courts to receive the services of qualified and professional interpreters and translators.

Ms. de la Vega has been active in NAJIT for over five years. She is a certified Spanish<>English interpreter and currently serves on the association's Bar & Bench Committee to educate attorneys and judges on how to best work with interpreters.

For additional information, please visit www.protranslating.com or contact Natalia Sturla at nsturla@protranslating.com or 305.371.7887.

About ProTranslating

ProTranslating provides language solutions to corporations, law firms and individuals worldwide. Headquartered in Coral Gables, FL with more than 35 years of experience, it boasts one of the largest teams of in-house linguists in the industry.

###